About BBB
For more than 100 years, the Better Business Bureau has been helping people find businesses, brands and charities they can trust. In 2017, people turned to BBB more than 160 million times for BBB Business Profiles on more than 5.2 million businesses and Charity Reports on 11,000 charities, all available for free at bbb.org. There are local, independent BBBs across the United States, Canada and Mexico, including BBB Serving Louisville, Southern Indiana, and Western Kentucky, which was founded in 1916 and serves 44 counties in Kentucky and 8 counties in Indiana.

Contest Information
The 2018 BBB Student Video and Poster Contest is sponsored by Sullivan University and BBB Consumer Education Fund (CEF), a 501(c)(3) charitable organization. Rules and Guidelines
• Entries must be submitted by September 28, 2018 (by 4:30pm EST).
• Entries can be photographed and emailed to meaton@louisville.bbb.org and must include in the subject line, Student First Name, Student Last Name Initial, and School (example: John D. – Your High School) in jpg or png format. If the file is too large for email, it can be mailed on a flash drive to BBB, Attn: Mindy Eaton, 844 South 4th Street, Louisville, KY 40203.
• Students or teachers/advisors will be informed when the entry is received.
• The contest theme is “Trust.”
• All entries must reflect the theme.
• All entries must include the BBB logo, available at http://us.bbb.org/ky-in-2018studentcontest.
• Each entry should have the student’s name in the lower right-hand corner
• No entry fee is required.
• There are 2 categories for submission: 1. Video submission (short film or PSA), which should be between 30 – 60 seconds in length. 2. Poster submission about the theme: Graphic Design OR Visual Art.
• Students may enter one (1) originally produced piece to the contest or one (1) entry per category.
• Entry must be new/original work.
• Nudity, profanity, explicit violence, drug use, or references to drug use or anything the committee finds offensive or vulgar are grounds for rejection.
• Applicants are solely responsible for their film production - this includes getting the appropriate releases for all persons who appear on-camera, including minors and their parents/guardians. The use of original music or royalty-free music is strongly recommended. Proper release forms must be presented for music with a copyright. Any material that is found without proper licensing may be rejected.
• The submission should include the title, category, student's name, and student's school.
• Along with the actual submission, the entry form must be signed. By signing the entry form, the student acknowledges they have read and understood this rules and guidelines form, as well as the terms and conditions form. A submission without a signed entry form will be rejected.
• The entry becomes the property of Better Business Bureau. Entries may be used in future promotions, events, or marketing campaigns.
• Although all cast/crew must sign the entry form, the name (or names) listed beside “Applicant's Name(s)” will be the only one(s) that are eligible to receive awards.
